

♥ *If Loving You Is Right I
Don't Want to Be Wrong* ♥

(John 13:34-35)

Love

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.”

Love

By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Love

I. The Calling to Agape Love (John 13:34-35)

Love

A. The word new in the text means a “fresh dimension”.

Love

B. The “fresh dimension” to the old command was that love is to be given in the sacrificial manner that Jesus gave to the believers.

Love

C. The selfless service and sacrifice of His life as a ransom for others was altogether new, and consequently

Love

C. was to be the model and standard for which their love for one another was to be measured.

Love

D. In essence, we are called by the power of God to seek the highest of good of others unconditionally, no strings attached.

Love

E. We are called to respond to the condition and need of others above the attractiveness and personal interest in others.

Love

F. We are called to have a genuine concern and benevolence towards others.

Love

II. The Considerations of Agape Love

Love

A. Agape Love is not something we have to work up to give it's something we work out through the power of the Holy Spirit within us. (Galatians 5:22-23)

Love

B. Agape Love is not a continuum that flows automatically through us; It is developed through practice or derailed through disobedience to God. (1 John 2:9-11)

Love

C. Agape Love is not given according to the character of the receiver but is given according to the character of the giver. (1 John 3:11-24)

Love

D. Agape Love is an unlimited resource from the Nature of God which we can draw from at any time;

Love

D. Therefore we have no excuse not love others with agape
love. (1John 4:7)

Love

E. It is hypocritical to expect agape love from others but not be willing to give agape love to others;

Love

E. We must be willing to give what we ask for.

(Luke 6:27-36)

Love

F. The evidence of our Christianity is revealed by the agape love we demonstrate to others through the power of God. (1John 4:15-17)

Love
