

Central Points to Consider about Money and Resources

Dr. Nicolas Ellen

1. God has His hand on our financial condition. (1 Samuel 2:7, Proverbs 30:7-9, 1 Corinthians 4:7)
2. When God provides the resources, you will find no sorrow tied to it. (Proverbs 10:22)
3. We must value the Word of God more than money. (Psalm 119:72)
4. Proper planning and diligence in one's work will lead to one having plenty in their life. (Proverbs 21:5)
5. Generosity with your resources will result in generosity being received accordingly. (Proverbs 11:25)
6. You are better off having a little and being righteous than having a lot and being wicked. (Psalm 37:16)
7. Your financial position cannot deliver you from the wrath of God. (Proverbs 11:4)
8. Don't make it your life's ambition to be rich in this life, because riches can come and go. (Proverbs 23:4-5)
9. If you gain money in an ungodly way, eventually you will lose it. (Jeremiah 17:11)
10. Honor God accordingly with the money and resources He has provided you. (Proverbs 3:9-10)
